Cooksey & Company, REALTORS®, LLC Rental Selection Criteria

Cooksey & Company, Realtors®, LLC observes the Fair Housing Act. The Fair Housing Act makes it illegal to deny housing based on familial status, race, color, national origin, religion, disability, or sex.

We utilized the Tenant Tracker system to verify credit, criminal and rental history. Tenant selection is based in part upon the following criteria.

Credit Worthiness - We do not base decisions on credit scores; however, generally 2 years of good credit history is required. No bankruptcies within the past 2 years. No recent collections or charge-offs especially for utility providers. We generally do not count medical or student loan debt against you. Upon signing a Lease, the Tenant is promising to pay the monthly rent on time for the period of the Lease.

Employment - Normally a 3 month employment history is required. If your employer usually does not release wage information, the submission of your last two pay check stubs is required. If you are an independent contractor, we will need to see the most recent tax return.

Current Income - Generally, three times the rent in gross income is required (before taxes are removed.) This is to ensure the tenant has adequate resources to pay the monthly rent. We combine income if applicants are married; otherwise, you generally must qualify individually. Those full time students applying with no verifiable income will be required to have their guarantor complete a Lease Guaranty.

Rental History - Generally, a satisfactory rent history is required. This includes a timely payment history, no recurring problems with the former Property Management, no eviction proceedings filed, proper termination notice given and no charges for past due rent or property damages on file. No broken lease agreements.

Criminal History - Although each case is considered individually, recent felonies, violent crimes, drug charges and crimes of a sexual nature will normally produce overall negative results.

HUD / Section 8 / Housing Voucher - Not all properties qualify for Section 8 housing allowance. Please verify that the property qualifies before submitting an application and fee. If property does not qualify for the program, then we cannot accept a voucher.

Each prospective tenant 18 years or older must complete an application. Application fee for married spouses (with the same last name) is $40. For all other applicants there is an individual fee of $40. We ONLY accept Money Orders in mail-drop or exact Cash during normal business hours. We will not run your application until we have received application fee(s). Incomplete applications are subject to denial.

Once notified your application is accepted, you have 3 business days to pay the Security Deposit. The property will be held up to 30 days once the security deposit is received. If you fail to pay the deposit in time, property can be rented to another applicant.

All application fees are NON-REFUNDABLE, so discuss any qualification issues and ensure you have Security Deposit funds prior to submitting application

Information About Brokerage Services

Texas law requires all real estate licensees to give the following information about brokerage services to prospective buyers, tenants, sellers and landlords.

TYPES OF REAL ESTATE LICENSE HOLDERS:

- A BROKER is responsible for all brokerage activities, including acts performed by sales agents sponsored by the broker.
- A SALES AGENT must be sponsored by a broker and works with clients on behalf of the broker.

A BROKER'S MINIMUM DUTIES REQUIRED BY LAW (A client is the person or party that the broker represents):

- Put the interests of the client above all others, including the broker's own interests;
- Inform the client of any material information about the property or transaction received by the broker;
- Answer the client's questions and present any offer to or counter-offer from the client; and
- Treat all parties to a real estate transaction honestly and fairly.

A LICENSE HOLDER CAN REPRESENT A PARTY IN A REAL ESTATE TRANSACTION:

AS AGENT FOR OWNER (SELLER/LANDLORD): The broker becomes the property owner's agent through an agreement with the owner, usually in a written listing to sell or property management agreement. An owner's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the owner of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent or subagent by the buyer or buyer's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BUYER/TENANT: The broker becomes the buyer/tenant's agent by agreeing to represent the buyer, usually through a written representation agreement. A buyer's agent must perform the broker's minimum duties above and must inform the buyer of any material information about the property or transaction known by the agent, including information disclosed to the agent by the seller or seller's agent.

AS AGENT FOR BOTH - INTERMEDIARY: To act as an intermediary between the parties the broker must first obtain the written agreement of each party to the transaction. The written agreement must state who will pay the broker and, in conspicuous bold or underlined print, set forth the broker's obligations as an intermediary. A broker who acts as an intermediary:

- Must treat all parties to the transaction impartially and fairly;
- May, with the parties' written consent, appoint a different license holder associated with the broker to each party (owner and buyer) to communicate with, provide opinions and advice to, and carry out the instructions of each party to the transaction.
- Must not, unless specifically authorized in writing to do so by the party, disclose:
 - that the owner will accept a price less than the written asking price;
 - that the buyer/tenant will pay a price greater than the price submitted in a written offer; and
 - any confidential information or any other information that a party specifically instructs the broker in writing not to disclose, unless required to do so by law.

AS SUBAGENT: A license holder acts as a subagent when aiding a buyer in a transaction without an agreement to represent the buyer. A subagent can assist the buyer but does not represent the buyer and must place the interests of the owner first.

TO AVOID DISPUTES, ALL AGREEMENTS BETWEEN YOU AND A BROKER SHOULD BE IN WRITING AND CLEARLY ESTABLISH:

- The broker's duties and responsibilities to you, and your obligations under the representation agreement.
- Who will pay the broker for services provided to you, when payment will be made and how the payment will be calculated.

LICENSE HOLDER CONTACT INFORMATION: This notice is being provided for information purposes. It does not create an obligation for you to use the broker's services. Please acknowledge receipt of this notice below and retain a copy for your records.
